

ROTARY CLUB OF HEALDSBURG
SCARC DINNER - APRIL 30, 2009

PROGRAM IDEAS SUGGESTED BY ATTENDING CLUBS

CLOVERDALE

Dr. Dave Anderson's presentation and slide show about Dementia. Contact the Rotary Club of Healdsburg.

Dave Ankrom's Power Point presentation about Dr. Allan Lewis' work with tropical deceases in Niger, Africa. Contact Dave at DCA@pacific-ocean.com

EUREKA

DG Ed described the Back Pack program that John Bradley of the Rotary Club of Eureka runs there. The club provides back packs with food for underprivileged children in elementary school prior to each weekend. Contact DG Ed or the Eureka club for further information.

HEALDSBURG

Tom Reed, former Secretary of the Air Force about his new book "The Nuclear Express, a political history of the bomb and its proliferation." Contact the Rotary Club of Healdsburg.

Steven Oliver of the Oliver Ranch in Geyserville about his passion for art installations by world class artists at his ranch. Contact the Rotary Club of Healdsburg.

PETALUMA VALLEY

The club provides a community service award to residents of the local homeless shelter for "service above self". Contact the club for more information about this program.

ROHNERT PARK – COTATI

Ready Rescue, a company led by a former TV and radio personality who became a paramedic after 9/11. The company teaches CPR and first aid to organizations. A funny and engaging speaker.

The president was absent for a meeting and in her absence the “Rotary Wheel of Misfortune” indicated she had to wear pajamas to the next meeting. The fines were heavy that day.

The Interact Club of Rancho Cotati H.S. conducted a meeting at the club and collected $350 in fines for their club.

Contact Tim Miller at 303 4126 for further information.

SANTA ROSA

Their five top programs:

Kendall Haven, Master Storyteller.

Brad Howard, Touched by Rotary.

Dr. John Landon, The recession and the economy.

Brent Farris, How to fight the recession.

Brian Sinigiani, Santa Rosa Terror, real or imagined.

Contact: Kathleen Archer at the Rotary Club of Santa Rosa.

SANTA ROSA EAST

Bonnie Joy Kaslan, Honorary Consul General of Turkey.

Contact John Teague at 573 9588

Santa Rosa City Council Candidate Forum

Marital Arts Youth Institute. Contact Rob Guasco at 843 9007

SANTA ROSA WEST

A speech contest for local High School students. The subject: Civilization and the next Generation – Science, Creativity and Discovery. The best speech received $1,000, second: $600 and third: $400.

Neil Silverman – A photo slide show about foreign places he visited.
For information contact the Rotary Club of Santa Rosa West.

SEBASTOPOL

Catherine Crouch of the Ceres Project. They engage teens who prepare and cook 1700 meals per week which are delivered to cancer and other seriously ill patients. Meals are free, organic and designed to provide what the patient needs. Contact: Catherine@ceresproject.org.

Richard Shatto, a helicopter pilot who fights fires and rescues climbers in Yosemite and environs. Contact: Don Rasmus at the Sebastopol Club.

SEBASTOPOL SUNRISE

Crisis Management – the art of management during difficult economic times, by Bill Schrader, President of Exchange Bank.
Contact: George Dutton 524 3000

SONOMA VALLEY

The Bat Ma'am, Patricia Wimers. She spoke about bats and brought several bats. We had no idea how important bats are.

An evening at Jacuzzi Winery. The meal was prepared by Bob Cannard's Slow Food Class.
Contact: Rich Lee at the Rotary Club of Sonoma Valley.

VALLEY OF THE MOON

Seva Cambodia Sight Program, presented by Dr. Chundak Tenzing. In a population of 14m, 160,000 are blind. 80% are curable or with proper care could have been prevented. Cambodia has only nine fully trained ophthalmologists. Seva's goal is to build up the countries eye care personnel and to perform 4,000 sight-restoring surgeries annually. More info on www.seva.org.

Flowery Elementary School in Aqua Caliente. A Spanish/English Dual Immersion School where students are totally bilingual by the 5th grade. Volunteers of the club work at the school three times a week. The children of the school make an annual presentation at the club. For more info about these and other programs contact: Frank Sites at: fsites@afgweb.com